(2) give to the Committee before the date of that meeting a written statement seeking the revocation of the resolution;

(e). informing the member that, if at that meeting, the Committee confirms the resolution, he or she may, not later than 48 hours after that meeting, give the Secretary a notice to the effect that he or she wishes to appeal to the Club in General Meeting against the resolution.

(5). At a meeting of the Committee to confirm or revoke a resolution passed under sub-rule (1), the Committee must

(a). give the member, and/or his or her representative, an opportunity to be heard; and

(b). give due consideration to any written statement submitted by the member; and

(c). determine by resolution whether to confirm or to revoke the resolution.

(6). If at the meeting of the Committee, the Committee confirms the resolution, the member may, not later than 48 hours after that meeting, give the Secretary a notice to the effect that he or she wishes to appeal to the Club in General Meeting against the resolution.

(7). If the Secretary receives a notice under sub-rule (6), he or she must notify the Committee and the Committee must convene a General Meeting of the Club to be held within 21 days after the date on which the Secretary received the notice.

Version: As adopted at the Annual General Meeting of 27 October, 2010 Page 5 of 22

- (8). At a General Meeting of the Club convened under sub-rule (7)
- (a). no business other than the question of the appeal may be conducted; and
 - (b). the Committee may place before the meeting details of the grounds for the resolution and the reasons for the passing of the resolution; and
 - (c). the member, or his or her representative, must be given an opportunity to be heard; and
 - (d). the members present must vote by secret ballot on the question whether the resolution should be confirmed or revoked.
- (9). A resolution is confirmed if, at the General Meeting, not less than two-thirds of the members present or voting by proxy vote in favour of the resolution. In any other case, the resolution is revoked.

10. Disputes and mediation

- (1). The grievance procedure set out in this rule applies to disputes under these Rules between
- (a). a member and another member; or (b). a member and the Club.
- (2). The parties to the dispute must meet and discuss the matter in dispute, and, if possible, resolve the dispute within 14 days after the dispute comes to the attention of all of the parties.
- (3). If the parties are unable to resolve the dispute at the meeting, or if a party fails to attend that meeting, then the parties must, within 10 days, hold a meeting in the presence of a mediator.
- (4). The mediator must be
- (a). a person chosen by agreement between the parties; or (b). in the absence of agreement
- (1) in the case of a dispute between a member and another member, a person appointed by the Committee of the Club; or
 - (2) in the case of a dispute between a member and the Club, a person who is a mediator appointed or employed by the Dispute Settlement Centre of Victoria (Department of Justice).
- (5). A member of the Club can be a mediator.
- (6). The mediator cannot be a member who is a party to the dispute.
- (7). The parties to the dispute must, in good faith, attempt to settle the dispute by mediation.
- (8). The mediator, in conducting the mediation, must
- (a). give the parties to the mediation process every opportunity to be heard; and
 - (b). allow due consideration by all parties of any written statement submitted by any party; and
 - (c). ensure that natural justice is accorded to the parties to the dispute throughout the mediation process.
- (9). The mediator must not determine the dispute.
- (10). If the mediation process does not result in the dispute being resolved, the parties may seek to resolve the dispute in accordance with the Act or otherwise at law.

APPENDIX 3 STANDING ORDERS

The following standing orders shall be observed at meetings of Members: 1 Agenda

The order of business shall be determined by the Committee

2 Suspension of Standing Orders

(1) In the event of any matter of urgency the chair of the meeting will accept a motion for the suspension of Standing Orders providing that the motion is seconded and submitted in writing within the first half hour of any meeting. The Member moving such suspension must clearly state the nature and urgency of the business, the numbers of Standing Orders affected and the length of time (not exceeding thirty minutes) that the suspension shall last.

(2) The suspension of Standing Orders is limited in its operation to the particular purpose for which such suspension has been sought. No suspension of Standing Orders shall take place unless approved by at least seventy-five per cent of the votes cast by Members entitled to vote on the resolution.

3 Motions and Amendments

(1) Motions must start with the word "that" and be expressed in the affirmative form.

(2) A motion must be in writing and signed by the mover and seconder except for a procedural motion in writing.

(3) A motion shall not use the first person, and may consist of several parts.

(4) Motions and amendments should be quite specific, clearly expressed, and should propose definite action.

(5) Amendments must be relevant to the motion and should not be contrary to it or any previous resolutions.

(6) An amendment to any motion must be in writing and be signed by the mover and seconder.

4 Debating Motions and Amendments

(1) Any amendment to an original motion may be moved by any Member other than the mover or seconder of the motion at the time after a motion has been moved and seconded, but before the mover of the original motion has exercised or declined to exercise the right of reply.

(2) A Member may move or second only one amendment to each motion, but may speak with regard to amendments moved by others.

(3) The mover or seconder of a motion may not move or second an amendment but is entitled to speak on any amendment.

(4) When an amendment is moved to an original motion, no further amendment shall be discussed

Version: As adopted at the Annual General Meeting of 27 October, 2010 Page 18 of 22

Rules of the Kelvin Club Inc - Organization No.: A0027845V

nor may discussion of the original motion be resumed until the first amendment is disposed of.

(5) Amendments to amendments shall not be accepted. Once the amendment is passed it becomes the motion and may be subject to further amendments.

(6) The mover of a motion or amendment may immediately speak in favour of it, or may move it formally.

(7) The seconder of a motion or an amendment may speak in support immediately, or may defer remarks and seek the call to speak later in the debate.

(8) After the motion or amendment has been moved and seconded, the chair of the meeting should ask for a speaker in opposition even though the mover and seconder may not have spoken in support of the motion or amendment.

(9) Throughout the debate, the chair of the meeting should ask for alternative speakers for and against the motion or amendment. Not more than two consecutive speakers for either side should be allowed, and if no one rises from the other side or to make an amendment the chair of the meeting should call on the mover to reply so closing the debate.

(10) No person may speak more than once to a motion or to an amendment except that the mover of a motion shall have the right of reply. The mover of an amendment has no right of reply.

(11) The mover of a proposition shall not speak for more than ten minutes, subsequent speakers shall be allowed five minutes and the mover of the proposition five minutes to reply. However, if a speaker's time expires, another Member may move an extension of time for a specified period. If the motion is seconded, it shall be put to the meeting without debate.

(12) Immediately the mover of a motion has exercised the right of reply, or declined to do so, the motion must be put to the meeting.

(13) The chair of the meeting has the right to join in debate on the motion or an amendment, but only if the deputy chair or some other Member of the Committee is asked to take the chair. The chair shall not resume the chair until the motion is resolved.

(14) The mover of the original motion shall have a right of reply before the motion is put to the vote. The question shall then be put to the vote immediately.

(15) The mover of the original motion in reply may summarise the affirmative case and deal with any opposition raised, but may not introduce any new matters.

5 Withdrawal of Motions

(1) No motion or amendment, which has been accepted by the chair, shall be withdrawn without the majority consent of the meeting. Apart from the mover or seconder, it is also competent for any Member present to move a procedural motion that a motion should be withdrawn.

(2) A motion cannot be withdrawn while an amendment is under consideration, however, the amendment can first be withdrawn according to the procedures in (1).

6 Putting the Motion

(1) After completion of debate, the chair of the meeting shall read out the motion and put it to the vote.

Version: As adopted at the Annual General Meeting of 27 October, 2010 Page 19 of 22

Rules of the Kelvin Club Inc - Organization No.: A0027845V

(2) Once decided at a meeting, a motion may not be brought forward again at the same meeting unless it is desired to move rescission of the motion. In this event, a motion for rescission requires the support of not less than three-quarters of Members present at the meeting.

7 Procedural Motions

(1) The Closure:

The chair of the meeting may accept a motion "That the question be now put" if it is felt that the issue has been adequately debated. If the chair of the meeting accepts the motion for closure, it must put it to the meeting without debate. If the closure is carried, the chair of the meeting must call on the mover of the original motion to reply to the debate and then immediately put the motion. The closure motion requires a simple majority.

(2) Proceeding to Next Business:

At any time during debate on a motion, any Member present other than those who have already spoken to such motion or amendment, may move that the meeting proceed to the next item of business. No amendments can be accepted - the chair must put the motion to the vote without debate. The effect of this device is to dispose of a motion without taking a vote on it.

(3) Guillotine Motion:

The chair of the meeting may accept a motion "that the Member be no longer heard". If the chair of the meeting accepts the motion it must be put to the meeting without debate. If the motion is carried the Member may say nothing further on the issue before the meeting.

(4) Suspension by Members:

A Member may request that another Member acting in a disorderly manner, disobeying an order by the chair of the meeting or showing disrespect apologise to the chair or move that the named Member be suspended from the meeting. The motion is not open to debate. The motion requires a simple majority. If the motion is passed the named Member must vacate the meeting for the remainder of the meeting.

(5) Suspension by Chair:

The chair of the meeting may at any time he or she considers it necessary or desirable to do so for the proper and orderly conduct of the meeting suspend a Member from the meeting and a decision by a chair on this matter is final. The Member named by the chair must vacate the meeting for the remainder of the meeting.

(6) Adjournment:

This is another method of disposing of a motion or postponing a decision. The motion is "That the debate be adjourned" and may also stipulate a time for resumption of the debate. If the debate is resumed, the mover of the main motion has the right to speak first.

(7) Rules for Procedural Motions:

A Member moving a procedural motion does not require the chair of the meeting's call, but a procedural motion may not be moved or seconded by anyone who has previously spoken during the debate. This does not apply to motions to adjourn the meeting itself.

Version: As adopted at the Annual General Meeting of 27 October, 2010 Page 20 of 22

Rules of the Kelvin Club Inc - Organization No.: A0027845V

No discussion is allowed on procedural motions unless considered appropriate by the chair of the meeting and no right of reply shall be given.

8 Chair's Ruling

(1) The ruling of the chair of the meeting on any question under the standing orders or on points of order, shall be final.

(2) Any Member disagreeing with a ruling from the chair of the meeting may move "That the chair's ruling be dissented from".

(3) The chair of the meeting must then call for a seconder who has no right to speak.

(4) The deputy chair or some other Committee member must then take the chair.

(5) The Member who challenged the (former) chair of the meeting's ruling should then give the reasons for doing so, and the (former) chair of the meeting explain why the ruling was given.

(6) The motion should then be put to the meeting as "That the chair's ruling be upheld" after which the (former) chair of the meeting will resume the chair and apply the decision of the meeting.

9 Making Points of Order

(1) A point of order is taken when a Member officially draws the attention of the chair of the meeting to an alleged irregularity in proceedings.

(2) A Member seeking to take a point of order should stand and raise right hand.

(3) A point of order must be taken as soon as the alleged irregularity occurs and cannot be taken at any other time. It takes precedence over all other business including procedural motions.

(4) The Member taking the point of order must prove one or more of the following:-

(a) That the speaker is going beyond the scope of the question;

(b) That the speaker is infringing a provision of the Rules of The Kelvin Club Inc;

(c) That the speaker is infringing the Standing Orders;

(d) That the speaker is using unseemly language.

(5) A point of order is not open to discussion and will be ruled on by the chair of the meeting.

10 Points of Explanation

If a member considers that his/her remarks have been distorted or misquoted, the Member may rise and ask "May I make a point of explanation, chairperson?" The chair of the meeting may then allow the Member to explain in a few words what was actually said or meant.
